July 9
King Soul
Old School Southern Soul

Born of a mutual passion for the deep, down home sounds of an earlier time, eight-piece band King Soul is bringing the excitement of old school Southern Soul to a new audience. Featuring original songs, powerful vocals and a badass horn section.

July 16
Dunlap & Mabe
Grassicana & Contemporary Bluegrass

Both masters of their instruments, Jack Dunlap and Robert Mabe play a mix of original tunes, classic bluegrass numbers, jazz favorites and covers anyone would recognize. With roots planted firmly in bluegrass, they stretch their sound in ways that all audiences will enjoy and leave the performance wanting more.

July 23
TEOA
Indie Rock & Folk

TEOA (The End of America) is James Downes, Trevor Leonard and Brendon Thomas: a band of friends who met on the road and found a kindred spirit in one another. The Philadelphia/Connecticut/New Hampshire based trio credit their name to Kerouac's On The Road, travelling "across the groaning continent" in search of inspiration and reaching "the end of America, no more land, and now there was nowhere to go but back." TEOA's sound weaves three distinct lead vocals into captivating harmonies over a solid foundation of folk, rock and Americana. "Their three-part harmony could well be the best since Crosby, Stills & Nash."Amos Perrine, No Depression

July 30
House of Hamill
Irish Folk/Celtic

Whether they're ripping through a set of original jigs and reels, adding lush three-part harmonies into traditional folk ballads, or cracking up an audience with stories from the road, House of Hamill puts on a show that captivates audiences from the very first note. An acoustic and eclectic mix of high-energy traditional Celtic and original songs and instrumentals. Their performance places a major emphasis on connecting with the audience, through stories, humor and light banter.

August 6
The Nighthawks
Blues & Roots Rock

You can call their music blues, soul, roots music...or, as Sonny Boy Williamson said: "You can call it your Mama if you want to." With a sound that spans all genres while still somehow sounding like a Chicago blues band in so many respects, The Nighthawks have remained one of the top-rated bands in the U.S. and beyond, and are celebrating their 50th Anniversary.

August 13
Blair Crimmins & The Hookers
Jazz, Dixieland & Ragtime

Blair Crimmins & The Hookers will make a jazzbo out of you. This ain't your great-grandfather's ragtime, and Blair Crimmins isn't any quaint Dixieland revivalist. While honoring his influences, Blair adds his own swinging southern panache with dashing youthful vehemence: rapid-fire lyrics and an audacious hair-tossing delivery. The sound evokes the hot jazz, ragtime and blues of the 1920s.

August 20
Heather Maloney
Indie Rock & Americana

Heather Maloney's music is riveting, her voice adventurous, her lyrics thought provoking. Her expansive range can handle Ella Fitzgerald-style jazz scat and adapt to Beatlesque pop or Joni Mitchell folk. Maloney's influences are largely rooted in what she calls "adventurous folk." A singer and songwriter, Maloney's music is smart, catchy and soulful, based in the traditions of '50s folk music through those of mid-late '90s acoustic-based coffeehouse heroes and heroines. She uses juicy touches of pop and a little dash of rock 'n' roll. Her songs are personal. Her passion is contagious.

SPECIAL! September 3
The Flashbacks

Local music stars, the Flashbacks put their own twist on crowd-pleasing hits from the '50s to the '80s. Benefit for Berkeley Springs State Park Foundation. Rain location: Berkeley Springs High School auditorium.
