

A Special Afternoon of Music

with

Rachel Blaustein,

Soprano

Pat Springer,

Accompanist

Enjoy an afternoon of superb musical artistry & support Morgan Arts Council at this benefit performance!

Soprano Rachel Blaustein is known for her distinctive artistry and for her command of the entire range of classical music, from Baroque to opera to contemporary compositions.

Rachel recently performed the lead role of Konstanze in Mozart's Die Entführung aus dem Serail at the Baltimore Lyric Opera House. She was a Studio Artist with Chautauqua Opera Company and an Apprentice Artist with the Des Moines Metro Opera Company.

In this special fundraising concert for the Morgan Arts Council, Rachel performs arias from the classical opera repertoire including La Bohème, along with a medley of Strauss tunes and music from the theater including Gershwin songs and well-known popular show tunes.
