FREE CONCERT IN BERKELEY SPRINGS: USAF HERITAGE OF AMERICA CONCERT BAND

BERKELEY SPRINGS, WV --- Enjoy a concert given by the United States Air Force Heritage of America Concert Band at Berkeley Springs State Park, Berkeley Springs, Saturday, June 27 at 5:30 p.m. The concert is free and open to the public. American Legion Post #60 will present colors. Rain location is the American Legion, 527 N. Washington St.

The Concert Band features the diverse talents of 38 professional musicians whose commitment to excellence has earned worldwide acclaim and military distinction. Featuring a full rhythm section in addition to a wind ensemble, the Concert Band's versatility entertains audiences with a variety of musical selections from Broadway to symphonic classical favorites, from jazz to patriotic marches.

For additional information about this free concert, which opens Morgan Arts Council's summer concert series, please call 304-258-2300 or visit the band's website www.heritageofamericaband.af.mil.

Activated in 1941, the United States Air Force Heritage of America Band has a rich history of inspiring public patriotism and enhancing esprit de corps among all the US military service branches. These world-class musicians are stationed at Joint Base Langley-Eustis in Hampton, Virginia. They travel throughout the Mid-Atlantic region, presenting over 300 events annually for the general public and in support of Airman morale and protocol events. The USAF Heritage of America Band remains at the forefront of communicating Air Force core values and preserving and enriching America's military and musical heritage into the 21st century.

This concert is made possible through the generosity of the US Air Force Heritage of America Band, which is donating its services. More information about this summer's free Concerts in the Park on Saturdays in July and August can be found at www.morganicehouse.org.
