THE FABULOUS MARY ANN REDMOND BAND LIGHTS UP BERKELEY SPRINGS

BERKELEY SPRINGS, WV—A Washington, D.C., regional favorite, Mary Ann Redmond and her band bring soulful rhythm and blues, great vocals and energy to Berkeley Springs State Park in Morgan Arts Council's Summer Concerts in the Park, Saturday, July 22.

Mary Ann's 24 Wammies (Washington Area Music Association Awards) pay tribute to her acclaimed vocals, which range from blues and jazz to rock-pop and traditional roots. Her rich voice soars effortlessly from alto to soprano as she performs innovative compositions along with her three-member band. She is known for singing heartfelt ballads and funky tunes with equal ease.

All concerts start at 5:30 p.m. The Ice House, corner of Independence and Mercer, two blocks north of the park, serves as the rain location. Sponsors for the series are Atasia Spa, Best Western Berkeley Springs Inn, Heath Studio Gallery, Lot 12 Public House and The Naked Olive, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts, West Virginia Commission on the Arts and local hotel-motel tax revenues.

The 31-year-old free concert series continues Saturdays through August 19. For detailed information on the concert series and participating performers, visit macicehouse.org or call 304-258-2300.
