MARTINSBURG JAZZ ORCHESTRA SWINGS INTO BERKELEY SPRINGS

BERKELEY SPRINGS, WV—Authentic swing and big-band jazz enliven Berkeley Springs State Park when the Martinsburg Jazz Orchestra takes the stage in Morgan Arts Council’s Summer Concerts in the Park, Saturday, July 29.

With 17 of the region’s best musicians (including Berkeley Springs’s own Mary Hott on vocals), the MJO presents a great sound, impeccable performance and contemporary big-band music. The ensemble mixes swing and traditional big-band tunes with contemporary big-band jazz for a high-energy evening of great music.

All concerts start at 5:30 p.m. The Ice House, corner of Independence and Mercer, two blocks north of the park, serves as the rain location. Sponsors for the series are Atasia Spa, Best Western Berkeley Springs Inn, Heath Studio Gallery, Lot 12 Public House and The Naked Olive, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts, West Virginia Commission on the Arts and local hotel-motel tax revenues.

The 31-year-old free concert series continues Saturdays through August 19. For detailed information on the concert series and participating performers, visit macicehouse.org or call 304-258-2300.
