2019-2020 SPECIAL EXHIBITS

May 31 - July 21: A POCKETFUL OF POSIES

Curator: Cal Hutton. Opening Reception: Friday, June 7. Flowers have long inspired the creative process. This show displays how artists incorporate images of flowers in their work ranging from paintings to fabric art.

July 26 - September 8: OUR VOICES - PERSPECTIVES OF WOMEN

Curator: Marily Mojica. An ethnically diverse group of urban women showcase a wide range of creative media. The essence of their art draws from the unique point of view and life experience of contemporary women.

September 13 - November 3: TRASH ART - REDEFINING RECYCLED

Curator: Joe Crow Heller. An impressive group of artists, some local, show how disposable materials of all sorts can be reused and elevated to art.

November 8 - December 29: A SEASON OF WONDER

Curator: Maya Fredo. Opening Reception: Friday, November 15. The annual holiday gift show draws work from talented local and regional artisans creating beautiful, fun and imaginative items. Unique treasures include jewelry, wearables, ornaments, wood, clay and metal work. Hand hewn wood bowl demos are scheduled each Saturday the show is up.

January 10 - February 23, 2020: MICRO/MACRO - NEW WORK BY THREE BLUE RIDGE ARTISTS

Curator: Patty Ray Avalon. Three Virginia artists: Avalon, Amanda Smith and Kevin Crowe present works in clay, encaustic and paint to provide a deeply reflective yet expansive experience of our world. Textures, weight, light and movement abound in this exhibit as micro and macro views are explored including huge canvases of galactic landscapes. Avalon created outdoor and indoor murals in Berkeley Springs.

February 28 - March 29: YOUTH ART SHOW

Curator: Hiroko Rubin. Public and homeschool students of Morgan County exhibit art they have made during the current school year in an explosion of creative force. Experience the work of both budding visual artists and the talents of young performers at the opening reception.

April 10 - May 24: AMERICA PROUD ANNUAL DELECTABLE MOUNTAINS QUILT SHOW

Opening Reception: Friday, April 17. Quilts by the local chapter on display and for sale are inspired by some of the best ideas America has to offer - from Grandma's aprons and songs like American Pie to Amish geometrics and Harley Davidson motorcycles. Smaller quilted items are also featured.

May 29 - July 19: GO WEST!

Curator: Patricia Strader. Opening Reception: Friday, June 5. Hitch up those wagons and get ready for a rip-roaring multi-media exhibit of Western art, full of images of horses, cowboys and pioneer life.
