AUDITIONS for Treasure Island at the Ice House

BERKELEY SPRINGS, WV - The Morgan Arts Council's Ice House Theater Project is holding auditions for Treasure Island on Monday and Tuesday, July 15 & 16, 6:30 pm, at the Ice House. Tom and Beth Brooks are directing the play. This musical production from the classic novel is adapted by Berkeley Springs' resident Larry Springer.

The directors are looking for four women and one teenage girl, as well as 16 men and one teenage boy. The adult male roles are for 11 pirates, a doctor, a sea captain, and one uppity fellow. The teenage boy is a young lad who is looking for adventure on the high seas. Roles for women include an innkeeper, a bar maid, and a lousy opera singer. The teenage girl plays a clumsy maid at the inn. There are also roles for two adult couples with only one or two lines, ideal for beginning actors.

In addition to onstage roles Brooks is seeking people who are interested in learning about or helping with set decoration, costumes, set building, lighting and sound. People interested in backstage or production tasks should send an email with areas of interest to art@macicehouse.org.

Audition information is available on the MAC website and at the Morgan County Public Library.

Performance dates are September 26 – 29, and October 3 – 6. Interested parties are encouraged to audition even if unavailable for part of the rehearsal time frame which begins in late July. The complete rehearsal schedule will be available at the auditions.

The Ice House is located on Independence and Mercer in downtown Berkeley Springs. For more information contact MAC at 304-258-2300 or www.macicehouse.org.
