DANIKA AND THE JEB OPEN SUMMER CONCERTS IN THE PARK SERIES

BERKELEY SPRINGS, WV—Americana, pop, and soul hit the stage when Danika and the Jeb kick off the Morgan Arts Council’s Summer Concerts in the Park, Saturday, July 6.

Coming straight from Nashville, Danika and the Jeb are a dynamic, uplifting, and fun duo performing a soulful combination of artfully written songs and powerful musical phrasing. Danika Holmes has a captivating voice and Jeb Hart hails from country guitarist royalty.

Danika’s belief is that a well-written song can embody all emotions of human existence, and she articulates that beautifully with her slightly raspy yet warm voice and truthful lyrics, while Jeb Hart can craft a story with six strings.

Danika and Jeb are taking stages of all sizes by storm – having opened for mainstream heavyweights such as Lyle Lovett, Dierks Bentley, Phil Vassar, Tracy Lawrence, and others. Their soulful and intoxicating sound lures in new fans daily.

All concerts start at 5:30 p.m. The Ice House, corner of Independence and Mercer, two blocks north of the park, serves as the rain location. Sponsors for the series are River Bend Family Medicine, SureStay Plus Berkeley Springs Inn, Heath Studio Gallery, Lot 12 Public House and The Naked Olive, with additional funding from the WV Department of Arts, Culture and History, and the National Endowment for the Arts, with approval from the WV Commission on the Arts, and local hotel/motel taxes.

The free concert series continues Saturdays through August 17. For detailed information on the concert series and participating performers, visit macicehouse.org or call 304-258-2300.
